Activity 1: Visit Grand Central Terminal

This historic world-famous landmark in Midtown Manhattan is not simply a transportation hub—it’s also a shopping, dining, and cultural destination all under one magnificent roof. Opened to the public in February 1913, Grand Central Terminal is a story of great engineering, survival, and rebirth. In 1978, architect Philip Johnson and First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis campaigned to secure landmark status for the Terminal, ensuring the building would serve New Yorkers for generations to come.

Activity 2: Visit Times Square

Activity 3: Relax at Bryant Park

Bryant Park is one of the world’s busiest public spaces. More than 12 million people per year visit the park and enjoy lush gardens featuring seasonal displays, free daily amenities, cultural programming, exercise classes, and much more!

Activity 4: Visit Radio Hall City Music Hall/ Rockefeller Center

- Visit the Top of the Rock observation deck

John D. Rockefeller Jr’s vision was for Rockefeller Center to be a place where New Yorkers could surround themselves with art and motifs that celebrated the best of the human spirit. Today, his vision has been realized, giving you the opportunity to come visit and discover and be inspired by it all, from outdoor installations to public art.

Activity 5: Visit the MoMA

At the Museum of Modern Art, we celebrate creativity, openness, tolerance, and generosity. We aim to be inclusive places—both onsite and online—where diverse cultural, artistic, social, and political positions are welcome. We’re committed to sharing the most thought-provoking modern and contemporary art, and hope you will join us in exploring the art, ideas, and issues of our time.

Please Note: Free admission to the MOMA available with ICOM card
